Subject: OIG Freedom of Information Act Request No. 2019-IGFO-00228
Final Response

Dear Mr. Misra:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Office of Inspector General (OIG), dated July 25, 2019, seeking all significant incident reports (SIRs) and significant event notifications (SENs) to date regarding the upcoming report on a data analysis into how children were tracked during the "Zero-Tolerance Policy," which was announced April 6, 2018 — and is still on the books. Your request was received in this office on August 28, 2019.

In response to your request, a search was conducted in the DHS-OIG Office of Audits.

As a result of our search, we have determined that the records you seek pertain to a matter that is ongoing. Because your request covers documents involving an ongoing DHS-OIG audit, the documents are withheld pursuant to the deliberative process privilege of Exemption 5 of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). Although other exemptions may be applicable to these records, DHS-OIG is not in a position to assert other exemptions at this time since this matter is still pending.

Please note that DHS-OIG posts all of its non-classified final reports on the DHS-OIG web site at <http://www.oig.dhs.gov/>. You may, therefore, wish to check this web site periodically to see if the final report of this document is posted, or in the alternative, sign up to receive email notifications when a report is posted on our web site.

Appeal

This is the final action this office will take concerning this matter. You have the right to appeal this response.¹ Your appeal must be in writing and received within 90 days after the date of this response. Please address any appeal to:

FOIA/PA Appeals Unit

STOP 0305

Both the envelope and letter of appeal must be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Your appeal letter must also clearly identify DHS-OIG's response. Additional information on submitting an appeal is set forth in the Department of Homeland Security regulations at 6 C.F.R. § 5.8.

Additionally, the 2007 FOIA amendments created the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:
